Search the Next-Generation EDGAR System

Note: EDGAR Search

Since 1934, the SEC has required public companies to file reports and documents. In 1984, EDGAR began collecting electronic documents to help investors get information. EDGAR system requires data from across the country to make it easier for investors to find and use information.

You can search information collected by the SEC several ways:

- Company or fund name, ticker symbol, CIK (Central Index Key), file number, state, country, or SIC (Standard Industrial Classification)
- Full text (past four years)
- Boolean and advanced searching, including addresses
- Key mutual fund disclosures
- Mutual fund voting records
- Mutual fund name, ticker, or SEC key (since Feb. 2006)
- Variable insurance products (since Feb. 2006)

Custom searches:

- Confidential treatment orders
- Effectiveness notices
- SEC Central Index Key (CIK)
- Daily filings
