- SEDAR  Provides access to electronic filings submitted by public companies and mutual funds to the Canadian Securities Administrators from January 1997 to the present.
- EDGAR  Provides access to submissions from public companies required by law to file with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Documents from 1994 to present are available for most companies. Full text searching available for the last 4 years.

Company Web Sites and Filings Information

The web sites of publicly traded companies typically have a section labelled "Investors" or "Investor Relations". Here you will find links to recent annual reports and other company filings. Note, however, that this is typically not as comprehensive as what you will find for the company on the web sites of security regulators, e.g. SEDAR or EDGAR.
